SECOND HARVEST KEEPS FARMERS BUSY

End of the fruit harvest doesn't mean the end of work on Western Farms on the Upper Bench road. A flock of Hampshire sheep keeps the family busy throughout the winter months. Donna Hauser makes it her business to keep the woolly animals well groomed and fed. An average of three Hampshire sheep a week find their way from the Upper Bench orchard to various dinner tables throughout the city. Many agriculturalists believe the Okanagan ideal to support heavy sheep herds.

PRESS PREDICTS RESIGNATION

Ike's Progress Said Excellent by Doctors

WASHINGTON (AP)—A 1 p.m. medical bulletin said today President Eisenhower's recovery progress so far is excellent.

The text of the bulletin by Dr. Howard M. Snyder:

The president rested quietly throughout the night and slept well.

He has spent the morning painting and talking with Mrs. Eisenhower and other members of his family, and holding brief meetings with the vice-president, the assistant to the president and the staff secretary.

His progress to date is excellent.

IKKE TO RESIGN?

In the meantime, some London newspapers predict today that President Eisenhower will be the first United States president to resign from office.

Shocked and saddened by news of Eisenhower's illness, Western Europe's halfway expected an early announcement that the 67-year-old president has turned over the U.S. government to Vice-President Nixon.

Official reaction to the illness was more restrained than that of newspapers. The press filled inside pages with lengthy feature articles and personality sketches on Nixon.

In London, a front-page headline in the mass-circulation Evening News asks, "Will Ike Resign?"

A dispatch from the paper's Washington correspondent says, "The big question in Washington today is: Will President Eisenhower resign?"

In a dispatch from Washington, the Daily Express assumed the president's resignation is only a matter of time. The story says, "President Eisenhower's latest illness almost certainly means that he will quit the White House—both for his own sake, and for his country's sake."

Allies Want NATO Session to Proceed

PARIS (AP)—Britain, France, West Germany and Italy today urged that the scheduled NATO summit conference take place despite President Eisenhower's illness, with Vice-President Richard Nixon taking the president's place.

These countries — chief European members of NATO — made queries from the U.S. delegation to NATO here. Similar views were expressed by The Netherlands and Turkey. Greece suggested a postponement.

The U.S. officially offered earlier today to send Nixon, if this was agreeable to the other members of the alliance.

Informed sources in London said the British government feels the conference should go on as scheduled with Nixon as the top U.S. representative. Similar reactions were expressed by France, Italy and The Netherlands.

The U.S. spokesman said the American offer will be communicated to other NATO nations tomorrow at the regular NATO council session here.

Loco Refinery Strike Ends

VANCOUVER (CP) — Workers returned to their jobs at the Imperial Oil Company's IOCO refinery today following settlement of the firm's first strike in 40 years.

Announcement that the walkout by 250 men had been settled was made in a joint statement last night by Imperial Oil and the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers Union.

Bennett Denounces Depression Talk

OTTAWA (CP)—Premier Bennett of British Columbia yesterday said his province welcomes United States capital and is peopled by optimists about the country's economic future.

In an address to the Canadian Club, Mr. Bennett said the people of his province are not depression-minded.

Economic developments in British Columbia have given the province a "some political leaders who are at present doing a great disservice to all of Canada by shouting 'depression' and raising a spectre of widespread unemployment, unrest and gloom," he said.

Rail Unions Start Contract Talks

MONTREAL (CP)—Representatives of 140,000 non-operating rail unions and Canada's two major rail lines began negotiations today on a new contract. The 15 unions recently served demands which the railways termed shocking and irresponsible. They want a one-year agreement to replace the present two-year contract, which expires Dec. 31, and a wage package of 35 cents an hour.

French, Tunisian Troops Clash

TUNIS, Tunisia (Reuters) — French and Tunisian troops clashed today along the frontier between Tunisia and Algeria, a government spokesman here said. He said two French battalions penetrated about 350 yards into Tunisia.

Doukhobor Spiritual Leader Dies

GRAND FORKS, B.C. (CP) — Doukhobor leaders here have been informed through the Canadian Red Cross that Peter Verigin III, the long-sought spiritual leader of Canada's 15,000 Doukhobors, has "died in confinement in Russia." Red Cross headquarters in Toronto passed on word of Verigin's death from the Red Cross and Red Crescent societies of Russia.

Market Bounds Up in Rousing Rally

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market bounded up in a rousing rally today following its steep dive of the previous session. News that President Eisenhower, despite his latest illness, was in fine spirits helped reassure the market. Gains ran to around $7 a share. Oils were in the lead, but all sections participated. The market by noon had recovered around $3,600,000,000 of its Tuesday loss of $4,500,000,000.

Reds May Resume Arms Negotiations

OTTAWA (CP)—Russia has indicated privately to Western nations it may be willing to resume East-West disarmament negotiations next spring, it was learned here last night. However, the Russians apparently want to conduct negotiations exclusively with the United States, the world's other major nuclear power.

Warns U.N. To Keep Hands off Algeria

Bond Admits Fear During Rape Trial

(Herald Vernon Bureau)

VERNON — Pale-faced Curtis Bond, the 16-year-old youth sentenced to two years definite and two years indefinite in the Young Offenders Unit at Oakalla for his part in the rape of a Penticton girl, told Mr. Justice H. A. Maclean he was physically frightened of John Clifford Brewer, oldest member of the trio.

Bond was testifying at the trial of Lloyd Loomer at the Vernon Assize Court.

A lengthy legal argument preceded Bond's evidence with defence counsel Say Toy maintaining that Bond's lack of religious belief made him an incompetent witness.

Crown counsel J. S. Aikins' contention that Bond should be allowed to take the stand was upheld by Mr. Justice Maclean.

After describing events leading to the physical attack on the girl, Bond stated that both he and Loomer went in considerable fear of Brewer.

Bond insisted that neither he nor Brewer struck or threatened the girl at any time.

The girl was allegedly criminally assaulted by all three members of the trio on June 22 in the Skaha Lake gravel pit.

After the attack the three are stated to have driven the girl to Kruger Hill and there forced her to leave the car and find her way to the nearest house and assistance.

Testimony of the 16-year-old Penticton girl, concerning the criminal assault on her by the youths was heard in camera this morning.

Mr. Justice H. A. Maclean expressed his reluctance to issue such an order, even though the age of the girl and the circumstances would warrant it. He said, "Hearings, open to the public, are an integral part of British justice. However, as the defence does not oppose this motion, I must order that the evidence of this witness be given in camera."

OPPOSES JUDGE

In a letter, distributed to newspapers, Minister of Justice Fulton and to the Law Society of Upper Canada, Toronto lawyer Lewis Duncan, above, gave the background for his request that Mr. Justice Locke not sit in a case brought before the Supreme Court of Ontario. Duncan's letter dealt with the case of William Lyle Kennedy, a farmer of Bruce County, Ont., who was not allowed an opportunity to appeal an Ontario supreme court decision upholding his conviction on a vagrancy charge.

France Calls for No Interference

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—France called on the United Nations today to keep hands off the Algerian problem and to permit the French government to continue its program.

Foreign Minister Christian Pineau told the General Assembly's 82-country political committee: "Thoughtless interference in this distressing affair would not only be a violation of the charter on your part, but would have no practical result other than to risk postponing a solution that we all wish to find as soon as possible." Pineau outlined France's plan for gradual enlargement of Algerian autonomy. He said: "France is ready to meet with positive action the legitimate aspirations of the Algerian populations without thereby abandoning their territory to anarchy and poverty."

He opposed Arab and Asian demands that Algerians be given the right to determine their own future relations with France. In the present circumstances "the inevitable result would be partition, in other words, the division of Algeria into two or more states."

Pineau said Communists infiltrated the Algerian nationalist movement and are active in stirring up trouble against France. He added: "The position of the French government can be summed up in two sentences. Representation is the result of free elections and not terrorism. The political conditions constantly raised in opposition to opening negotiations can only make the latter pointless."

"That is one of the basic reasons we have felt unable to follow through with the offer of good offices made recently by the king of Morocco, and the president of the republic of Tunisia."

Viewers Startled By RCAF Summons

NORTH BAY, Ont. (CP) — A summons to all personal at the nearby RCAF fighter base to report for duty immediately was flashed on television screens here last night, startling thousands of viewers.

Mayor Merle Dickerson said many who saw the message thought a third world war had started. It turned out to be part of practice warning by the RCAF should have advised the public.

The TV station went off the air at its scheduled time just after the announcement, leaving viewers in the dark as to what was happening.

Banks Will Reduce Loan Interest Rate

TORONTO (CP) — The interest rate charged by Canadian banks on prime loans will be reduced 1/4 per cent to 5 1/4 per cent, effective Dec. 2, it was learned in banking circles today.

The present rate has been in effect since Aug. 26.

The prime rate is the one charged to best-rated borrowers and is the governing rate which in effect decides what other rates will be.

Accordingly, it is understood that the reduction in the prime rate will influence rates on all other bank loans downward.

The reduction, it is stated, reflects recent general reductions in interest rates on government treasury bills and other securities.

Two Killed By Hit-Run Driver

VANCOUVER (CP) — A young boy and a 60-year-old man were killed in traffic accidents in Vancouver area last night, police said that in each case the car left the scene.

Dead are eight-year-old Roddy Creighton of North Surrey and Leong Him, about 60, of Vancouver.

The Creighton boy was drowned in a roadside ditch after being struck by a car as he was returning home from a Wolf Cub meeting. He was found by his father at about midnight following a search by Cub leaders and friends.

Leong was struck in Vancouver's West End district and dragged nearly 70 feet.

Foresees Arab, Israel Conflict

TORONTO (CP)—United States Senator Hubert H. Humphrey says he foresees an Arab war against Israel in 1960.

The Democrat from Minnesota said Tuesday such a conflict would be inspired by Russia. It would come at a time when the U.S. would be concerned with a presidential election.

He indicated too the possibility of earlier Middle East strife.

Denies Farm Price Drop

OTTAWA (CP) — A CCF Commons member's reference yesterday to "a drastic drop in agricultural prices" brought a prompt denial from Agriculture Minister Douglas Harkness.

U.S. Missile Fails To Complete Flight

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—The U.S. Army fired its big Jupiter rocket last night, but the 1,500-mile range missile failed to complete its planned flight.

Moments after the 70-foot intermediate range ballistic missile blazed into the tropic sky at 9:10 p.m. EST the army issued a statement that said it failed to complete its programmed flight because of technical difficulties.

Six U.S. congressmen watched the firing.

To hundreds of spectators watching along the beach on the island midway along the Florida east coast, the Jupiter was a spectacular sight as it rose from a pillow of smoke and flame on the launching pad.

It appeared to travel straight up, trailing a yellow flame. Then it became a purplish light high in the sky. It was visible for about four minutes and was brighter than any star.

The statement by the defence department said only that the missile failed because of technical difficulties.

Judge Refuses To Postpone Beck's Trial

SEATTLE (AP)—Superior Judge Malcolm Douglas has denied a motion by counsel for Dave Beck that the grand jury trial of the International Teamsters Union president be postponed. It is scheduled to start Monday.

The attorney, Charles Burdell, based his motion on a submission that adverse publicity would make it difficult for Beck to get a fair trial now.

Burdell also said Beck is due in Washington, D.C. Monday as a witness in a civil suit involving the eligibility of James Hovatta to succeed Beck as president of the teamsters union.

Premiers Get Assurance of Federal Aid

OTTAWA (CP) — Provincial premiers are leaving Ottawa empty-handed on immediate tax-sharing proposals, but with indications of early federal action to sweeten their treasuries in other ways.

The 10 provincial chiefs got no federal commitments on basic changes in existing tax arrangements at the federal-provincial conference that ended late Tuesday, but they received assurances of federal aid in some directions. And they were told that a new conference will be convened as early as possible in the new year to receive the central government's decisions on a multitude of treasury-dipping propositions advanced by the provinces at the conference during the last two days.

One Candidate For Trustee

Two school trustees whose terms expire at the end of the year, Mrs. Hetty Kingsley and G. J. Rowland, will not be standing for re-election in the forthcoming elections. They made this announcement today.

There will be three seats to be filled at this election so far as the school board is concerned.

E. A. Tyhurst, whose term also expires at the end of this year, has decided to run again.

This means that at least two more candidates must enter the lists to fill vacancies.

Mrs. Kingsley is completing her second two-year term this year and Mr. Tyhurst his first two-year term. Mr. Rowland has served for two years and, prior to that he had been appointed to fill out the balance of the term of the late Mrs. Clarence Burth.

G. C. Alington, after six years experience, will also be leaving the board this year. He has represented the Kaleden area. Next term this rural representation will be taken over by Gordon Lake, of the West Bench, who was recently elected.

Part-Time Farmers Cause Low Prices

B.C. offers wonderful opportunity for agricultural development but prices at present are being depressed by "weekend farmers," a University of B.C. agriculture professor says.

Dr. Neil McLean told the Pentiction Kiwanis Club yesterday that the part-time farmer often is competing with full-time farmers in market production and causing the fall in prices.

He said B.C. farmers also face severe competition from other provinces and from the United States.

The B.C. strawberry farmer must compete with California growers getting 30 tons of berries to an acre for a seven-month period compared with 10 tons an acre for a much shorter season here.

Competition with Alberta and the U.S. is fierce in the potato field and B.C. tomatoes are often left on the vines because of competition.

Dr. McLean said the cost of production can be reduced as the size of the farm is increased. B.C. with less than half its arable land being used, therefore offers wonderful opportunities.

Jail Term Boosted

Peter Thomas Miller, of Pentiction, was brought back from Oakalla where he is presently serving a six month sentence, to face four charges of breaking and entering and theft.

Appearing before Magistrate H. J. Jennings yesterday he was found guilty of the charges and further sentenced to three months definite and nine months indefinite.

Charges arose from break-ins at the S.S. Sicomous, the concession and the Twilight Drive-In Theatre several weeks ago.

PRE-XMAS SHOPPING SPREE LAUNCHED IN CITY TODAY

There's a big extra incentive for Pentictionites to do their Christmas shopping early this year.

The history-making pre-Christmas shopping spree that begins tomorrow offers residents bargains in all kinds of Christmas gifts. A total of 22 merchants, working as a group, have combined their efforts to stage special sales in the next three days that will make it economical and convenient to do Christmas shopping now, thus avoiding the last-minute rush.

The idea has been highly endorsed by the Pentiction Board of Trade and it is hoped that the effort will not only meet with the public's approval but will also encourage citizens to do their Christmas shopping at home.

Former Mine Supt. At Hedley, Dies

A former resident of Hedley, athlete and perhaps the first man to throw a forward pass in football competition there, Benjamin Wallace Knowles, 71, died at his home in Colorado Springs, Colorado, last week.

He was born in Denver in 1886 and was a graduate of the Colorado School of Mines class of 1908.

While in Hedley he was superintendent of the Nickel Plate Mine. He had lived in semi-retirement for the last 17 years.

While attending the School of Mines he excelled in sports and was rated one of the greatest athletes.

Jack Stewart, Summerland Kiwanis convener for the project, reported it was highly successful in every respect and he was certain that it would become an annual affair. Objective is to promote greater understanding and goodwill between Canada and the United States. FIRE DESTROYS ELECTRIC MOTOR Pentiction firemen were called to a fire at 3:42 a.m. today at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Schjodt of 301 Edna Ave.

On arrival it was found the electric motor of the natural gas furnace was burning. Firemen extinguished the flame which completely destroyed the motor.

Mrs. Schjodt told the Herald today her first intimation of trouble came when her six-year-old daughter came to her bedside shortly after three and told her there was a loud banging in the basement and that she was scared.

Immediately upon awakening Mrs. Schjodt could smell the smoke from the burning motor and called the fire department.

Origin of the fire was believed to be a short circuit in the electrical equipment.

Famous last words: "Don't worry — he'll stop. I've got the right of way."

Barbers Born, Not Made; Tough on Legs

By LEN WALKER

Barbers are born, not made, according to Elwyn Morton, owner and operator of the Legion Barbers on Main St., who says he cut his first teeth on a battered old razor strop.

Mr. Morton, one of the more recent arrivals among Pentiction barbers, said hundreds of men graduate every month from accredited barber colleges from coast to coast. But although every one of these schools has a sizeable backlog of applicants, many of whom wait a year or even two years to take the course, there is always a shortage of barbers.

"This is because many who take the course never bother to complete their apprenticeship," Mr. Morton explained. "Less than half of those who do become journeyman barbers are still cutting hair five years later."

"Most of those who stay with barbering have one thing in common. They are sons of barbers, who in their early years watched in wide-eyed fascination while father made a dashing Romeo of some good woman's hard working husband. They learned by viewing and by asking a thousand questions. Their future was decided for them long before they knew it."

TOUGH ON THE LEGS

Greatest boon to the barber, since invention of the electric clipper, says Mr. Morton, is the two-day weekend brought about by Monday shop closing. One day off after a long week of standing behind a barber chair, was never really enough rest for a pair of weary feet.

A genuine love for one's fellow man, says Mr. Morton, is a basic requirement for the person who seeks to earn his daily bread with the clippers and the razor. But he must also have a good pair of legs.

Mention of the razor brought up the subject of the early days of barbering when regular customers would have their shaving mug sitting on the shelf at the barber shop.

That is a thing of the past, Mr. Morton said. "In fact there are few men today who drop by for a shave. This is possibly due to the introduction of the modern method of shaving with an electric razor. Those who do come for a shave are travellers in a hurry to get about their business or those who arose late."

TEEN-AGE HAIR STYLES

Everyone knows there's been a revolution in teen-age styles during the past few years. However, no one knows it better than the barber.

It is the opinion of Mr. Morton that too many young men, in the past, have neglected their hair. "I'm glad to see a little creative thought extended in this direction. Perhaps it's time men exercised a little more individuality in the way they wear their hair. But I would say this to every young man who wants to be different: restraint is the better part of every creative effort. After a certain point the result can only be ridiculous."

Turning to Elvis Presley hair cuts and other styles practiced in the past by teen-age youths, Mr. Morton said these come and go. The most popular hair cut today is the brush cut, he said. This style has been popular for a long time now and will outlive any of the styles which are created from time to time.

JUNIOR'S FIRST HAIRCUT

Taking the little fellow to the barber shop for his first haircut is something almost every mother dreads. But it need not be, says Mr. Morton. Any parent who follows these simple rules has little to worry about.

1. Take the youngster early, preferably about the time of his first birthday.

2. Prepare him for his haircut in such a way that he'll look forward to it. Don't ever let him sense that you dread the day, or you will have trouble.

3. Help him to get established in the barber chair, then withdraw to the waiting area. Most barbers are good at handling children.

4. Never take your boy to the dentist before getting him trained to have his hair cut. The barber chair and the dentist chair, to a child, are terrifyingly similar.

Mr. Morton began his barbering career at Winnipeg in 1949, coming to Pentiction in May of this year. Before arriving in the Okanagan he attended the Vancouver Vocational Institute where he successfully passed examinations which allowed him to barber in this province.

Although not admitting he would be barbering as long as his father, who at 63 years of age still owns and operates his own shop in Saskatoon, Mr. Morton said, "I'm likely to be with the clipper, scissors and comb for a long time to come because barbers are born, not made, and I cut my first teeth on a battered old razor strop."

Two recent graduates from Pentiction Air Cadet No. 259 Squadron, WO2 J. Johnson and WO2 L. Esson, are to be honored at a mess dinner aboard the S.S. Sicomous tomorrow evening.

Major Victor Wilson, M.C., will be guest speaker, and a number of guests have been invited.

Excellent Returns From School Show

SUMMERLAND — Corridors were crowded at the high school Friday evening when the annual Open House Carnival was held. Financial returns were excellent.

Interesting goings-on had been arranged in the classrooms including young scientists showing experiments, microscope work and different types of lighting.

Steps in dressmaking were exhibited in the sewing room and in the home economics department, tea and other refreshments were served.

Every hour a variety show was staged in the gym with music and gymnastic displays.

The auditorium was filled with games of skill and chance and there was also a House of Horrors for spine-chilling thrills. Grade 10 girls raffled a puppy called Buttons, the proceeds going to a community project. Sidney Flebbe became the proud owner of the dog.

G. Ewart Williams won a cake by making the most accurate guess of its weight.

Tom Mills won a chicken by guessing a live turkey's weight. The food hamper went to Mrs. Violet Barnes; and Harold McLachlan was tops in the button contest, prize for which was a box of chocolates.

Proceeds, which were almost exactly the same as last year's event, go to the students' council and to the high school band.

MORE ATTENTION TO VISUAL SKILLS OF PUPILS NEEDED

Pre-school examination of all children to determine if they have necessary visual skills to meet the demands of school work is not far off.

President of the B.C. Optometric Association, Dr. J. S. Clark, made this prediction as B.C. observed "See Better — Love Better Work" November 25-30.

He said educators are becoming more aware of the link between visual ability and reading ability — and that it is the association's objective to give those who have not developed the necessary skills special training. "The time is not far off when

Tougher Enforcement More Desirable than Pictures

Deputy Highways Minister Evan Jones' suggestion that traffic patrol officers carry photographs of mutilated bodies to show to men and women violating the highway code is one of doubtful benefit.

"If a driver takes a curve wildly, exceeds the speed limit, passes on the brow of a hill or commits any other offence that could lead to death on the road, patrolmen should wave him down, show photographs of what might have happened to him then let him go on his way." Such is Mr. Jones' idea.

It is possibly true that a few people would be upset enough at the sight of such pictures to slow down their driving, but we feel quite sure that the majority would go on their way untroubled.

Raised, as we are, in a world of violence, with newspapers, radio, TV and movies pouring forth a continual stream of stories or pictures of death and destruction in a thousand ways, we could look on car crash pictures without a qualm.

If offending drivers could be taken to crash scenes and shown the ultimate result of speed and carelessness, the tangled steel and shattered flesh, some results might be obtained. But a picture—no. Its flatness and remoteness make it a poor weapon to use to curb bad driving.

Attorney-General Robert Bonner made a better suggestion when he said tougher law enforcement had already been responsible for a decrease in traffic deaths. In this materialistic age materialistic punishment is indeed the only answer to the frightening death toll on our highways.

Let law enforcement officers, magistrates and judges, strike the severest blows possible against the men and women who abuse the privilege of driving. Heavy fines and long license suspensions would do far more good than a thousand pictures from Mr. Jones.

On one brief point we agree with the deputy minister. He implied that a "snowstorm of traffic tickets" was not a deterrent. This is true but only because the tickets in the snowstorm are lasting as the first Fall snowflake and as hard on the people. If the first ticket in that snowstorm was harsh and uncompromising in its demands, and the second harsher and even more biting in its punishment, we venture to suggest there would be little need for further worry.

Let the people who cannot drive within the bounds of common sense be banned from our roads until they show enough responsibility to sit behind the wheel of one of this generation's most deadly weapons.

Alberta Handout

This fall the Alberta government is paying to qualified adults a $20 "dividend" from one-third of its oil and gas revenues, to a total of $11 millions.

Its income from these sources has risen so fast as apparently to throw the provincial treasurer off balance. For instead of a deficit estimated at nearly $34 million in the year ending March 31 last, a surplus of somewhat larger amount was realized. With all this, the province has been paying off its debt at quite a clip.

But the royalties "dividend" has come in for severe criticism, and its political effectiveness was less than expected at the last election. Now the representatives of the municipalities, in convention assembled, have asked that the dividend fund be diverted to the Alberta Municipal Financing Corporation to form a revolving low-interest borrowing fund for the local authorities. Approving this demand, the Edmonton Journal thinks most Albertans do not "relish the spectacle of their government playing the role of a tipsy Santa Claus, scattering $20 bills to the four winds with gay abandon." It can think of other uses for the money, too—in building new hospitals and cutting taxes, for example.

Once reasonable needs for public expenditure have been met, tax cutting would seem the proper course for a government having millions to spare. To go on passing out "dividends" with one hand while extracting millions from the voters' pocket books with the other is not a policy likely to earn respect. It smells unpleasantly like political bribery.

Minister of Agriculture Replies to Local M.P.

F. C. Christian, Okanagan Boundary MP, recently asked the Hon. D. S. Harkness, minister of agriculture for information on the importation of cull apples to Canada from the United States and what steps were being taken to promote the sale of Canadian apples in Canada.

The complete reply of Mr. Harkness follows: I should like to thank the hon. member for giving me notice of this question. The fruit, vegetables and honey regulations made under the authority of the Fruit, Vegetables and Honey Act makes the following provision with respect to apples being imported into Canada: Apples shall not be below the requirements of Canada commercial or "C" grade. The regulations further provide: Importations from the United States of America may be considered in compliance with the foregoing if the accompanying United States government inspection certificate as endorsed by the United States inspector "meets Canadian import requirements" as follows: (a) apples shall meet the requirements of July 1, 1952 to June 30, 1957, im-

OTTAWA REPORT

No Decision on Fluttering Flag

Special Correspondent to The Herald

OTTAWA: A portrait of the past week in parliament would not be complete without mention of that hoary bugbear: proposals for the creation of a new Canadian flag.

Wilfrid LaCroix, a 66 year old Liberal who has represented the French-Canadian constituency of Quebec-Montmorency in parliament for exactly one-third of his life, threw a monkey-wrench into his Party by raising this proposal once again. Ex-Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent and some two dozen other French-Canadian M.P.s. voted against this proposal; LaCroix and two others voted for it. But the great majority of their fellow French-Canadian Liberals from Quebec ducked the vote rather than be ground between the millstones of party obligation and French nationalism.

The insoluble problem underlying this proposal is the racial antagonism which seethes beneath the delicate veneer called "national unity". This oft times bitter feeling unfortunately prevents any nation-wide agreement upon what symbols should be included in, or definitely excluded from, a new Canadian flag.

BORN OF HOT BLOOD

The basic fact which the flag fanatics will not recognize is that, if a flag is to inspire devotion and faith, it must be born of national tribulation and human triumph. France, for example, honors a flag thus born of a national revolution; Britain is loyal to a flag developed through the expansion of the United Kingdom; the United States treasure a flag whose symbolism is rooted in the uprising and unification of thirteen colonies.

It is idle to believe that Canadians would nourish similar devotion and sentiment for a bunting merely devised by the majority vote of blooming demagogues attempting to gloss over a nationwide chasm. Would our sons volunteer to fight and perhaps die for a flag as uninspiring and unrepresentative as the symbol for a regional table delicacy, namely maple syrup?

LaCroix devoted the lesser part of his speech to this proposal which he made his highlight. His longer theme was to criticize Prime Minister Diefenbaker because French-Canadians are less numerous in the present government than they were in the previous. He overlooked the statistical fact that Mr. Diefenbaker has put 50 per cent of his French-Canadian Quebec supporters in his Cabinet, whereas Mr. St. Laurent only found room for less than 10 per cent of his French-Canadian Quebec supporters. That the electors of Quebec choose to send to Ottawa more representatives following St. Laurent than following Diefenbaker is the significant fact which the demagogue critics disregard in this specious argument.

RETURN TO PARADISE

The name Michener may bring to mind several best-selling books, of which the latest was called "Return to Paradise". This association of ideas is not inappropriate when one thinks of the new Speaker of the House of Commons, The Hon. Roland Michener. "Roly" Michener was a popular, courteous, very able and very firm Speaker. He has already restored the shattered respect of the Chair, and he shows signs of tightening up the practice to match the precepts in Commons procedure.

But they spoke to a partly empty Senate and to largely empty galleries, because nobody knows in advance just what business will be transacted in the Senate, or who will speak and at what time.

Why do not the Senate leader and Opposition leader confer beforehand, so that at the close of each day's sitting, the order of business for the following sitting can always be announced, and the names of speakers be listed in some public place in their order of speaking? This is always done for the Commons; if the Senate would follow the example, its sittings would attract a bigger audience when it is likely to prove truly interesting.

Mosquitoes Bit Harder in 1858

Century Sam, a pioneer Fraser River gold-miner in 1858 made his stake and holed up for the winter. Like Rip Van Winkle he slept for years. Only a few months ago he was awakened by the stir of the approaching Centennial Celebration. Amazed at the changes which have taken place, Sam now tells something of the B.C.'s past, contrasting it to the present. As to our future he says, "You ain't seen nothing yet."

A strange thing for me, being out and around here again after a hundred years, is to hear someone complain about the weather or living conditions in B.C. Like I heard a man talk yesterday about the mosquitoes this year and how bad they are in some places, such as on his neck. Man, you people don't know what mosquitoes are! The mosquitoes you have here now are nothing, nothing at all to what we had.

To get an idea of the B.C. mosquitoes, the pioneers were up against, here's a bit of a letter that was written by a young fellow, out here in '58. . . . I, Charley Wilson, of the Royal Engineers. I knew him when he was surveying the boundary from the River gold-miner in 1858 made his stake and holed up for the winter. Like Rip Van Winkle he slept for years. Only a few months ago he was awakened by the stir of the approaching Centennial Celebration. Amazed at the changes which have taken place, Sam now tells something of the B.C.'s past, contrasting it to the present. As to our future he says, "You ain't seen nothing yet."

"The last of us had any sleep for the last two nights and we can scarcely sleep, exposing the face is such a painful operation. . . . My hands have been so swollen and stiff that I could hardly bend my joints and have had to wrap them in wet towels to be ready for the next day's work; one's hands are literally covered with things like the state of their skins, when it is packed is obliged to be led into a circle of fire continually kept up as they are quite intractable when worried by mosquitoes. Our tents used to be so frequently covered with mosquitoes, inside and out, that it was difficult to see the canvas and the very action of getting under the curtains introduced so many, it was impossible to either kill them or sleep. . . . We are, all of us, as you may imagine, a good deal pulled down by want of sleep and continuous irritation."

Yes sir, the B.C. mosquitoes in the old days were big, fat, fierce flying bugs. As Wilson said, "Six of our horses were so reduced that we had to turn them out onto the prairie and let them take their choice of living. I never saw anything like the state of their skins, one mass of sores." Well, things got so bad that they had to stop work and move away to higher ground in July. They came into New Westminster and didn't go back to Sumas until October.

So don't anybody talk to me about the mosquitoes being bad in B.C. this year. They ain't.

PROTESTS CRITICISM OF MAYOR OLIVER

Sir:—It is with regret that I read of the pettiness of aldermen Hawkins and Geddy's regarding the mayor and the geographical test of Ellis Creek. The council last week adopted a recommendation of its board of works that the tests be proceeded with provided that the estimate of cost was reasonable and ordering that Mr. Cook of Vancouver be asked for a firm quotation of cost.

Evidently the quotation the mayor got was satisfactory and he immediately got the work done. Surely the council could do the price was reasonable without calling a council meeting to consider the matter. The mayor has spent many days seeing the creek work is being done in time with the result that the repairs have been completed this fall instead of next spring and Mr. Penfold's suggestions carried out. We are indeed fortunate in having a mayor who gets things done.

Yours truly,
ROBT. LYON.

INTERPRETING THE NEWS

Algerian Crisis Is Splitting NATO

By JOSEPH MACSWEEN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

The Algerian crisis is splitting French sympathies away from NATO, at least as far as public sentiment is concerned. This was the fact faced by Prime Minister Macmillan of Britain in his mission to France, and the meaning of angry street demonstrations in Paris after he arrived.

It has given rise to fears that the "summit" meeting of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, beginning in Paris Dec. 18, may suffer frustration clothed in high-flown phrases and generalities.

OUTRAGED PROTESTS

Ironically, the West finds itself in disarray just at the time when leaders planned to show unity and common purpose in the face of Russian technological and propaganda triumphs.

Certainly every effort is being made in a diplomatic way to reach a measure of agreement on the Algerian question which now seems to be becoming an international issue despite France's outraged protests. A Tunisian-Moroccan proposal for settlement of the fighting roused French suspicions, coming as it did almost immediately after Anglo-American shipments of arms to Tunisia in defiance of French wishes.

Although Premier Felix Gaillard was cool to the offer of "good offices" from Tunisia and Morocco, it was significant that even the rank and file of his own party — The Radicals — voted differently at a conference, calling for acceptance.

BIBLE THOUGHT

The prayer of faith shall save the sick and the Lord shall raise him up, James 5:15. Great physicians recognize the vast importance of a patient's mental attitude, when they lose faith their grasp on life is feeble indeed.

WORD MEANINGS

The Algerian war has cost 40,000 lives and resulted in 80,000 refugees. Galliard estimates it costs France $350,000,000 annually, but former Premier Pierre Mendes-France, also a member of the Radical party, says it costs more than $1,500,000,000. Despite France's implacable official attitude, observers see hope for early negotiations to end the conflict. It was noted that the Tunisian-Moroccan proposal used the word "sovereignty" for Algerian aims, avoiding the term "independence" which France detests.

Galliard has said he would like to see Algeria develop its own "personality" while remaining in close association with France. Observers are waiting with interest for exact definitions of the terms "sovereignty", "independence" and "personality".

Additional hope is seen in the forthcoming Algerian debate in the United Nations. But it is unlikely that this could produce any real results before the NATO meeting.

S. Potts, a capitalist of Minneapolis was believed interested, the claims being named "Potts Group" accordingly. Readjustment of Economy Starts

TORONTO (CP)—Canada has entered a phase of economic readjustment, but there are no grounds for panicky apprehension of severe depression, John S. Proctor, president of the Imperial Bank of Canada, said today at the bank's annual meeting.

"There is, he said, the basic fact that the prospects of the Canadian economy have not so worsened as to make necessary any substantial revision of long-term plans for investment-spending by Canadian business men.

"Unless some unforeseen disaster overwhelms the United States and Europe," he added, "our export sales should grow greatly."

"We should be able both to pay high wages to our people and sell our main export commodities on a competitive basis on world markets, in spite of the difficult-ties which are bound to be encountered with particular products from time to time."

UNEMPLOYMENT INCREASE

Unemployment is likely to be increased, Mr. Proctor said, by the mere cessation of recent rapid growth, even if there is no decline in production, because expansion of production is necessary to absorb the annual growth of the labor force and the release of increased productivity.

"We should not conclude, however," Mr. Proctor added, "because unemployment is growing, that we are heading into a depression. Pausages in periods of expansion are inevitable."

Mr. Bateman began his service with the CPR as a clerk at Winnipeg in 1905. He became chief clerk in the right-of-way office in 1909 and became agent for the department in January, 1910.

Traffic Safety Drive Planned

OTTAWA (CP)—More persons will be killed on Canada's highways in the next 10 years than in the last 20, if the present rate of traffic accidents continues.

This statement is made by the Canadian Highway Safety Conference on the eve of safe driving week, from midnight Saturday, Nov. 30 to midnight, Dec. 7.

Safe Driving Week is sponsored by the conference in an effort to bring home to motorists and pedestrians alike that something can be done to reduce traffic deaths, injuries and property damage.

UP TO INDIVIDUAL

The campaign is conducted simultaneously in all provinces and municipalities, and has the active support of all public organizations. Its object is to bring sharply to the attention of the motorist and the pedestrian the basic fact that the individual is the only one with power to prevent accidents and fatalities.

Governor General Massey, in a letter to the conference, says campaigns designed to bring about a public awareness of death on the highways are of the greatest importance.

Radio Phone System Will Be Improved

VERNON — The B.C. Power Commission's Southern Interior radio telephone system is to be improved through installation of more powerful equipment.

Regional manager, Mr. Larry Wight, announced here today that the Power Commission has approved the expenditure of $43,014 to cover replacement of existing 48 megacycle Kamloops-Vernon radio communication equipment with 150 megacycle equipment.

Mr. Wight said the improvements will bring the communication system in this section of the province up to the modern standards.

The improvements call for the installation of a repeater station on Silver Star Mountain near Vernon and the addition of nine mobile and four portable sets.

The new equipment will allow for point to point communication between Kamloops, Vernon and Shuswap Falls and will improve transmissions between Vernon and mobile units travelling on the Monashee Range.

Calgary Council Enjoys Apples From Okanagan

CALGARY (CP) — Aldermen walked out of council chambers last night munching Okanagan apples, a gift from the mayor of Vernon, B.C.

Mayor D. H. Mackay told aldermen the city of Vernon sent three boxes to city hall in appreciation of the reception accorded their mayor during a recent visit.

Pointing to 13 bags containing 20 apples each, Mayor Mackay said it was decided to divide the apples evenly rather than "risk violating lottery laws" by holding a draw for the three boxes.

Teamsters to Start Organizing Drive

Beck's term expires officially Dec. 5 and vice-president James R. Hoffa has been elected to replace him. But Hoffa's seating has been barred pending trial of a complaint by some union members the election was rigged.

Ike's Illness Worries U.N.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (CP) — Word of President Eisenhower's illness caused shock and concern at the United Nations yesterday.

A number of delegates from countries friendly to the United States, while declining to be quoted directly, expressed apprehension over what this development will mean in connection with American foreign policy.

One source predicted that the president's illness will have a more disastrous impact on the U.S. in general than his two previous ones—when he suffered a heart attack in 1955 and underwent an intestinal operation less than a year later. In those periods, this source recalled, uncertainty over the President's condition resulted in a wave of uneasiness in investment circles despite the fact the U.S. economic position was basically strong.

Now, however, the U.S. is faced with the threat of a general economic recession. And this, coupled with the mounting concern over Russia's recent scientific advances, makes the issue of the president's health much more likely to have far-reaching effects than during the previous illnesses.

Teachers Seek Wage Increase

VANCOUVER (CP) — Elementary school teachers here will ask for a 25.9 per cent salary increase in wage negotiations with the Vancouver School Board.

The Elementary Teachers' Association issued a statement saying salaries here are 31 per cent below the average for Canadian workers. The wage increase would cost $1,285,900 — equal to $3.25 a citizen, a spokesman for the association said.

The teachers will also ask for a decrease in the time needed before a teacher reaches the maximum salary level. At present, in some cases, a teacher must practise for 17 years before reaching the top level.

POTTERY IS ANCIENT

The early pottery of the Near East was of excellent design and quality—evenly shaped, very thin, fine-grained and hard—and as early as 4000 B.C. many different patterns for decoration were in use.

MR. AND MRS. TERRENCE WILLIAM KELLERMAN —Portrait by J. Ernst of Osoyoos.

Pretty Autumn Setting For Osoyoos Ceremony

OSOYOOS—White mums decorated St. Ann's Roman Catholic Church on Saturday, November 23, for the wedding of Lisa Beutlich and Terrence William Kellerman.

The bride is the daughter of Walter P. Beutlich and the late Mrs. Beutlich of Osoyoos and the groom the son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Kellerman, also of Osoyoos. Father O'Carroll officiated at the nuptial mass.

For the ceremony the bride wore a floor-length gown of white nylon net and lace over taffeta.

Embroidery of Gold And Silver Enhance Holiday Dresses

Holiday dresses are a trend all their own for Christmas and for parties that crowd the weeks following.

New York highlights gilded buttons on white wool, pastel stripes on featherweight tweeds mingling shades of blue, mint green against a white background.

In the same gay holiday mood, heir-length "maypole streamers" hang from white linen collars on other dresses.

Silver and gold embroidery is festive looking, also, and collars, belts, buttons of gold or silver add.

Silk brocade provides simple elegance for any occasion, and is something that would be useful for late day later if needed for the south. Very new are party frocks of warp-printed silk taffeta, with roses the favorite blossom.

The neckline was inset with crimped nylon net enhancing the bodice of lace styled with lip-point sleeves. The skirt had a pointed corded waistline designed with pointed inserts of lace. Her chapel veil was held in place by a tiara of sequins, pearls and rhinestones. She wore as jewelry a string of pearls and earrings to match, and carried a bouquet of red and white roses, mums and carnations.

The groom's sister, Miss Lillian Kellerman was maid of honor, while the bride's sister, Miss Arlene Beutlich was bridesmaid. For the occasion they chose identical gowns of red velvet, tuxedo style, with a corded, taffeta bow just below the waistline. The ballerina length circular skirts were worn over crinolines. They wore pearl earrings and matching necklace and hats of white feathers. Their bouquets were of white mums and carnations.

William Du Mont was best man while Earl M. Kellerman ushered.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Organist was Miss Charlotte Klah of Osoyoos.

Earl Kellerman, brother of groom, proposed the toast to the bride and the groom responded. The reception was held at the bride's home where Mrs. Katharine Bauer and Mrs. Walter Lemko served the guests.

For the honeymoon south to Idaho and Oregon, the bride chose a rose colored suit with black accessories and small black feathered hat. She wore a corsage of red and softly colored yellow roses. The young couple will reside in Osoyoos on their return.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lon Cyr, Kelowna; Miss Lillian Kellerman and Miss Ellen R. Gully, both of Oliver.

KEEP IN TRIM

All Normal Weights Need Exercise Too

By IDA JEAN KAIN

It's a healthy sign that middle aged normal weights are taking a firm stand on calories in order to fend off pounds which might otherwise encroach. Prevention is definitely better than cure, and some calorie restraint in rich foods is necessary today even for normal weights.

However, keeping in shape is quite as much a matter of exercise as it is of calorie curbing. As life has become physically easier, we've gone soft. We should not be content to settle for flabbiness.

This thought is delightfully expressed in a quote from "The Sinner of St. Ambrose," by Robert Raynolds: "She had let herself get a little plump which was a pleasure... but I warned her there was a difference between being voluptuously firm and lazily fat."

To be voluptuously firm calls for eating enough food to be well nourished and taking sufficient exercise to be well toned. Many normal weights today are on the side of too little exercise, and they are not in shape, weight to the contrary.

Our way of life encourages the least possible activity. Let's face the fact that actually we have to go out of our way to get sufficient exercise to keep fit. What to do for exercise is a big problem. Walking is a wonderful constitutional — everyone agrees. But we do so little real walking. Frankly, in many of the suburbs where presumably we go to lead a more natural life, there are no sidewalks, and it is a positive hazard to walk on the roads. This age of motor cars is cheating us out of nature's way of helping us to keep fit and dispel nervous tension. Elbert Hubbard said it well... "The cure for emotion is motion."

In other countries where motor cars are not so abundant, the citizens walk and bicycle routinely. And it is a well known fact that, despite our abundance of good food, compared to the other countries, we are muscularly deficient.

Granted, sports afford the most enjoyment for exercise, but such activity is not always possible. Calisthenics as a means of keeping fit are coming into their own. Such exercise can be suited to the individual, can be taken regardless of weather, and requires only a few minutes a day.

Some of you may have worked out more novel ways to get exercise routinely in your daily lives. If so, won't you share the method with us?

Rich silk and delicate lace are an irresistible combination for party clothes. Here, deep jewel-toned green silk tulle is combined with matching green Chantilly-type lace for a short evening dress that should hold its own amidst all those fine floor-length gowns. The silk is cut in redingote fashion, breaking away to reveal the complete lace dress beneath. A cleverly cut cummerbund minimizes the waist.

THESE TWIN CHRISTMAS TREES are a suggestion for a new dimension in seasonal decorations and can be made from a half-yard of green felt. Sequined braid or tinsel with jewelled buttons will add sparkle to the novel tree decorations.

Make Christmas Tree Twins for the Mantle

Making your own Christmas tree decorations can be half the fun. Next decorate each section of the tree you plan to use for the front with sequins, sparkly buttons, or sequined braid or tinsel. Pin the decorated felt to the plain felt so that all points match exactly. Then stitch together about 1/2 of an inch from the edge on the sewing-machine. You can make the finish at each point neat, by raising the presser foot on the machine to pivot around the point. Make a small felt loop and attach it to the tree you wish to hang. Stand the other tree on the mantle by stuffing lightly with tissue paper, or set it over a tall glass or bottle.

To store the trees for next year, place between layers of tissue paper and lay flat in a shallow box. Toss in a few mothballs to protect the felt and seal the box with transparent tape. For the children, the hanging tree will be as much fun as a Christmas stocking.

PRESERVERS

Certain foods, if left too long on stainless steel tableware, may cause stains. So it is wise to whisk stainless steel pieces in hot soap or detergent suds immediately after using. Rinse and dry thoroughly to keep the pieces bright.

HOUSEHOLD HINT

Veneered furniture is usually as good as "solid" furniture, if not better. In modern construction, strength is added by bonding together layers in which the direction of the grain varies. Fine antique pieces, too, are often veneered.

"Here's a line of new herbs and spices, Chef," I said. "Any homemaker would appreciate a collection as a Christmas gift."

"There's powdered mushroom seasoning, horse radish powder, flaked chives, powdered orange peel and powdered bay leaf. What a help to good seasoning these will be!"

"Arabian Nights" Hats are in Favor

LONDON — Head-hugging, or head-topping hats with an "Arabian Nights" flavor predominated at the fall and winter show of milliner Simone Mirman.

Maker of many hats for Princess Margaret, Mirman showed "Arabian Night Ambrosine"—a pill-box type hat obtainable in "Arabian Night" colors of Lebanese blue, Tangier topaz, Libyan green and Syrian brown, theme colors of the show.

One hat in white velvet had a black Persian lamb surround and an upright spike on top, another was encircled with brass curtain rings. A third was fashioned like a tiny star with mink heads and jewelled eyes.

The informal head-start much favored by Princess Margaret in the country appeared in a setting of gold lame and black velvet. Trimmings included ribbons, chains and belts.

BUD GRANT
... A letdown?

Grant Laments Lack of Spirit

WINNIPEG (CP)—Coach Bud Grant of Winnipeg Blue Bombers thinks the amazing spirit that carried his club to the Western football championship is missing on the eve of the Grey Cup game. "They're saying the same things, but it's just words," he said in an interview. "On the bus on the way to the game, Charlie Shepard hasn't even been able to work out with the team yet," he said. Fullback Shepard is suffering from a bruised hip and a knee injury. Lewis is suffering from a torn rib cartilage and Mangum has a sprained ankle. In the big game in Toronto, Grant will be trying to beat the man who gave him his biggest break in professional football, Jim Trimble. After Winnipeg's surprise win over Edmonton, Grant received the following telegram from Trimble: "Congratulations. I'm very proud and happy for both you and Wayne, an assistant coach Wayne Robinson, who also is a former Eagle. Will look forward to the same type of game from your squad as you've always demonstrated. Good, tough, all out and may be the best team win." Of Trimble, Grant says: "I have nothing but respect and admiration for him."

Rossland Nips Smokies 3-1

ROSSLAND (CP)—Rossland Warriors created a three-way tie for second place in the Western International Hockey League on Tuesday night, when they defeated Trail Smoke Eaters 3-1. The victory was the seventh for the last-place Warriors up to now and their fourth in a row. Their wins now equal that of the Nelson Maple Leafs and Trail. Rossland has two games in hand over Trail and one on Nelson. Spokane leads the league with 14 points. Defenseman George Ferguson fired what proved to be the winning shot when he let a slapshot go from the blueline after taking a face-off pass in the Trail zone. The sizzling slapshot caught the lower left corner at 16:12. An insurance marker was added in the third by Bud Andrews, while Frank Turk tied the game up in the first period. Opening the scoring in the game was Trail's Warren Hicks. The clubs battled to a 1-1 deadlock in the first. Rossland moved ahead by one in the second and

Former Vees Playing Coach Scores Twice in 4-3 Triumph

Grant Warwick fired two goals and picked up one assist last night as the Kamloops Chiefs overcame a 3-2 first period deficit to defeat Penticton Vees 4-3. Close to 1,400 fans were treated to 60 minutes of fast, spirited hockey. Loose defensive play cost the Vees two goals and allowed the Chiefs to walk off with a win after being down 3-1 in the first period.

The win left Kamloops in second place, two points behind Kelowna, which defeated Vernon 7-6 Tuesday night to maintain its league lead. The Vees are in fourth place, four points behind the third-place Vernon Canadians. Gerry Prince and Johnny Millard tallied the other Kamloops goals and Bob Harper, Walt Peacosh and Don Slater scored for the Vees. Kamloops' first goal was an outright gift as Prince intercepted a clearing pass in front of the Vees' goal and fired a low shot past goaltender George Wood at 1:35.

Harper got that one back at 2:59, taking a double relay from Bernie Bathgate and Walt Peacosh to beat Kamloops' netminder Jim Shirley. At 4:02 Slater slapped Diachuk's passout past Shirley. Peacosh converted Bathgate's pass at 13:55 to give the Vees a 3-1 margin. With only 45 seconds remaining in the period, Grant Warwick took a pass at the blueline on a power play and rifled an ankle-high drive past Wood.

The second period was scoreless, with Wood robbing the Kamloops forwards on several occasions. After only 25 seconds of the final period, Grant Warwick took the puck in the corner, stickhandling in front and beat Wood with a low backhand for the tying goal.

With the Vees short two men on interference penalties, Millard deflected a game-tying shot from playing coach Bobby Davies and Grant Warwick for the winning marker at 16:37. George Wood was impressive in defeat for the Vees, turning aside 38 shots. At the other end Jim Shirley blocked 21 shots. Eddie Diachuk, rookie Vees left-winger, was given a two minute high sticking penalty and a match penalty in the first period when he engaged in a stick-swinging duel with Dick Warwick of the Chiefs. Warwick received a two minute slashing penalty.

Kelly Bolsters Detroit's Top Forward Line

By KENNEDY WELLS

Canadian Press Staff Writer

Have Detroit Red Wings found the magic element to put potency back in Gordie Howe's scoring formula?

There's a strong evidence they have and it should be just the factor needed to blow the fifth-place Wings back into the National Hockey League's first division.

For many years the formula called for terrible-tempered Ted Lindsay on left wing with Howe on right. They could score with any centre.

Last summer Ted was traded to Chicago Black Hawks and over the first games of the season Howe and the Wings were a pale reflection of their old selves.

Then, three games ago, coach Tommy Ivan moved Red Kelly, the peerless rearguard, onto left wing opposite Howe.

TOP RESULTS
Result two ties and a win. Wings beat three-game effort this season three goals and two assists for Howe, two goals and two assists for Kelly.

They were Howe's sixth, seventh and eighth goals this season. He had scored only five in the first 17 games. The last assist was his 408th in league play, tying him with Montreal Canadiens' Elmer Lach for the league record.

If Kelly is the catalyst that produced the reaction, he could not be more unlike Lindsay.

PEACOSH SHOWS SCORING FORM

Kamloops Chiefs' goaltender Jim Shirley slides too late as Walt Peacosh fires the puck into the net in last night's Okanagan Senior Hockey League action at the arena. Vees dropped the game to Kamloops 4-3 after holding a 3-1 lead at one time in the first period. Loose defensive play enabled the northerners to come back and tie the game and then go ahead when the Vees took two interference penalties in the third period. Grant Warwick packed the Chiefs in their comeback win, firing a pair of goals and assisting on another. Vees next home action is Saturday night when they host the Vernon Canadians.

VERNON ABSORBS SETBACK

Jim Middleton Paces Packers to 7-6 Win

VERNON (CP)—Vernon Canadians' comeback plans received a severe jolt Tuesday night when Okanagan Senior Hockey League leading Kelowna Packers edged them 7-6 in a thrill-a-minute game that had the 1500 fans on their feet.

Big line for Kelowna was a Middleton-Kaiser-Roche combination that accounted for most of their scores. Jim Middleton notched a hat trick with Brian Roche and Joe Kaiser getting singletons. Other scorers for the victors were Bugs Jones and Harry Smith. For Canucks, George Agar and Johnny Harms got a brace apiece with further goals from Laidler and Lowe.

Coach George Agar sent Canadians into the lead after 4:28 edging home an angled pass from Jim Moro. After a series of misses Bugs Jones squared matters scrambling past Gordon. Another goal by Agar was levelled inside a minute, Middleton going through on a lovely passing play with Kaiser and Roche to slide into the bag.

Defenceman Harry Smith put the Kelowna squad into the lead for the first time with 22 seconds clocked in the second session, taking in the second session, taking in the second session, taking in the second session, with Ray Fowler, accepting the return and walloping past a surprised Hal Gordon.

Laidler had it all square, slamming in one off Gathrum's skate after Agar had set him up, only for Jim Middleton to take full advantage of another Roche-Kaiser job the next minute. With Jim Moro in the sin bin, Pat Coburn shoved them into a two goal lead, Lowe tapping over Dave Gathrum's head to finish the scoring at 5-4 for the period.

Vernon resumed full of pep till Harms connected two within a minute sending Canucks once more into the lead. Another penalty to Jim Moro heralded the equalizer by Middleton. Despite a tremendous finish by Canadians, Gathrum barred the door to give Packers a valuable win in their quest for title honors.

Alouettes Start Rebuilding Job

MONTREAL (CP)—Montreal Alouettes' rebuilding program got under way today with the announcement that three American college halfbacks have been put on the Als' negotiation list.

With the three singled out, no other club in Canada can attempt to deal with them but they could be subject to the college draft by National Football league clubs in the U.S.

Coach Doug Walker said the three are John Crow of Texas A. and M., Phil King of Vanderbilt and Dick Christy of North Carolina State.

"We have received excellent reports on those boys. Of course, they would have to make the team like everybody else if signed and they would figure in our plans to improve our running game around Pat Abbruzzi and Joel Wells."

Alouettes, eliminated from the Big Four final series last Saturday by Hamilton Tiger-Cats, also said they purchased three Canadians from Kitchener-Waterloo Dutchmen of the Ontario Rugby Football Union. They were not identified.

From This Corner

By GARTH WILTON

The Vees, even in defeat, turned in an impressive performance last night.

That, in short, is the story of why they are a last-place hockey club. Despite a sparkling display by young George Wood and an all-out effort by the forwards, the Vees sank lower into the Okanagan Senior Hockey League cellar.

Two glaring defensive lapses gave the Chiefs the win on a silver platter. Not that the Chiefs didn't work for the victory. They did. But George Wood and a band of back-checking forwards spelled difference.

That is, they would have had not the Vees defence in general, and Kev Conway in particular, pulled a couple of bonehead plays. Conway's first miscue gave the Chiefs an early 1-0 lead. The veteran defenceman took the puck behind the Vees goal and without looking fired a clearing pass straight up the middle. Unfortunately for Conway, and the Vees, young Gerry Prince was parked in front of the goal, between Conway and the Vees forwards.

It's a tossup who was more surprised, Prince when the puck landed on his stick, or Wood when the puck sped past him.

Conway's luck continued bad as he committed another cardinal sin of the game in the third period, dumping Bill Warwick when the Vees were already playing with a man in the penalty box. That gave the Chiefs a two-man advantage and they wasted no time scoring their fourth and the winning goal.

Previously, in the opening seconds of the third period, the Vees defence failed to cover Grant Warwick in a corner and the former playing coach of the Vees stickhandled in front and fired a low backhand past Wood for the tying goal.

But, except for the defensive miscues, the Vees looked better than they have for many an outing.

It has to be said with bouquets.

Say it about Don Slater, a little man but a lot of hockey player. He played his best game of the season for the Vees, showing a lot of spirit and hustle.

Say it about Walt Peacock who can really fly, and was... Al Lloyd whose hallmark is hustle with a capital H... Bernie Bathgate who played his usual heads-up game... Bob Harper and Clare Wakshinski, who were both digging and George Wood, who once again played Horatio at the bridge as if he had written the script.

But the Vees forgot, or more precisely their defence forgot, that when a hockey team uses hustle as its major weapon, it has to go all-out for the full 60 minutes.

Eddie Diachuk, rugged young Vees leftwinger, spoiled what was otherwise a crowd-pleasing hockey game for many fans late in the first period when he smashed his stick on Dick Warwick, who was lying on the ice.

Warwick was sent sprawling by a solid bodycheck thrown by the former Edmonton junior. His stick caught Diachuk in the face. Diachuk, enraged, stood over Warwick and swung his stick with both hands. After the stick broke he dropped on Warwick and threw several punches before he was pulled off by the officials.

Even though Warwick slashed him after taking the solid check, there can be no excuse for Diachuk's savage attack.

It was strictly bush league. And the pity of it all is that Diachuk is one youngster who doesn't have to use a stick to make his presence felt when it comes to settling a difference of opinion.

MONTREAL (CP) — Hamilton Tiger-Cats, Big Four football champions and Grey Cup contenders, dominate the Eastern All-Stars selected by fan voting for the third annual Shrine game here Dec. 7.

HIBERNATING BEARS

Very few large animals hibernate, but adjust themselves in one way or another to cope with the cold winter. Bears, however, are an exception. They become excessively fat in the autumn and emerge from their long sleep in the spring thin and very hungry. It is doubtful if any of them are completely torpid during hibernation.

Gerry McDougall, Hamilton. Punter—Cam Fraser, Hamilton.

Defence—Ends Pete Neumann, Hamilton; Lou Bruce, Ottawa. Tackles—Ted Elsby, Montreal; Pete Bennett, Toronto. Guard—Vince Scott, Hamilton. Linebackers—Tony Curcio and Steve Oneschuk, Hamilton; Johnny Blaiher and Bill Bewley, Montreal.

Backs — Bobby Kuntz, Toronto; Gary Schneider and Bobby Simpson, Ottawa.

Also named but unavailable for the game were ends Hal Patterson of Montreal and John Welton of Toronto and back Bobby Judd of Ottawa.

Pastrano at Peak for Bout

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (CP) — Willie Pastrano, one of the leading contenders for Floyd Patterson's heavyweight boxing crown, indicated Tuesday he'll be at his peak for the nationally televised fight with Willi Besmanoff here tonight.

"This fighting every four weeks is just what I need," said Pastrano, who defeated Dick Richardson in London in his last bout Oct. 22. "I'm fighting better than ever before."

Besmanoff, heavyweight from Munich, Germany, was undefeated in 11 fights in 1956 but lost four of six starts this year. He figures he has a good chance against the fourth-ranked Pastrano.

"I saw him fight twice," Besmanoff said. "He's a good boxer but I'm used to his style. Every fighter I met in Europe was a boxer like Pastrano. So I don't think I'll have too much trouble with Pastrano's style."

KNOX WILLING TO REJOIN BEARS

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — Quarterback Ronnie Knox said Tuesday George Halas, president of the Chicago Bears football team, had offered to lift his suspension contingent on his joining the club in playing condition.

Young Knox who was suspended by Halas Oct. 3, said he was willing to rejoin the Bears upon receipt of word, from Halas as to where and when.

Halas suspended Knox on the allegation he had willfully skipped practices, a charge the young player denies.

Knox said he had proof from doctors that he was ill and unable to report for certain practice sessions.

His stepfather, Harvey Knox, was not at Tuesday's conference.

Dutchmen Edge Russians, 4-2

KITCHENER, Ont. (CP) — Kitchener-Waterloo Dutchmen scored a 4-2 victory over Moscow Selects in an exhibition hockey game Tuesday night before 8,000 fans.

The Russians came up with a surprise when they started Nicolai Puchlov in goal in place of Yevgeny Erkin. Puchlov has been recovering from a fractured jaw, an injury suffered at a game in Moscow Nov. 3.

Erkin got a split finger in a workout earlier Tuesday and it may have caused the change. Monday the visitors said that Puchkov had been forbidden to play by his doctor.

TAKE LEAD

A 40-footer that beat Puchkov gave the Dutchmen a 1-0 lead in the first period. Don Rope was the marksman.

In the second period Ken Lautman scored a backhander at 20 seconds. Less than four minutes later Jerry Thorberge made it 3-0 when he spun in front of the Soviet goal and hit the corner.

The Dutchmen were short-handed when Russia scored its first goal.

Konstantin Loktev registered with a 25-footer as the Russians showed a fine power play.

LOOSE PUCK

Jack Stoddard banged in a loose puck in front of the Russian goal at 11:49 to make it 4-1. The margin stood up to the last 10 seconds when the Selects got their final goal.

Veniamin Alexandrov, beat the K-W defence to the puck and took a shot. Hurley kicked it out. The puck went behind the goal and as Alexandrov tried to pass it in from it hit Hurley's skates and deflected in.

The Dutchmen got four of seven minor penalties. The Selects have now lost two and tied one in three starts in Canada.

SKIING OLD SPORT

The sport of skiing, says the Book of Knowledge, was introduced into North America from Europe in the 18th century. However, it did not reach its great popularity until after the first World War.

Plan Legal Action Against Railway

VANCOUVER (CP)—Representatives of North Shore Indians will meet soon to consider taking legal action against the Pacific Great Eastern Railway.

At issue are access rights for Capilano Reserve Indians across the government-owned PGE's switching yard south of Marine Drive in West Vancouver.

Chief Mathias Joe charged that PGE violation of an agreement to keep an old tribal trail clear of parked railway cars caused an accident in which four Indians were injured.

Lorne Nahane, 41, and his daughter, Teresa, 11, and Rob-erta, 12, were taken to hospital with shock and bruises after their pickup truck was crushed between a slow-moving freight train and a stationary boxcar.

A son, 10-year-old Lorne, was more seriously injured. He is in fair condition in hospital with chest injuries.

The collision occurred on an extension of Capilano Road. Chief Mathias Joe claims the road is an old tribal trail which he has been fighting to keep open for more than a year.

In July the Indian Affairs Department upheld his claim.

The Chief claims the PGE agreed to keep parked railway cars of five 35-foot-wide right-of-way.

Today the Chief charged the PGE with violating this agreement.

Japanese Apple Imports Scored

OTTAWA (CP)—Agriculture Minister Harkness said yesterday he will look into recent imports of canned Japanese apples on the west coast.

But he said there is no ground for action against present imports of United States potatoes into British Columbia.

The issue was raised in the Commons by two Social Credit members.

George Hahn, New Westminster, said the B.C. lower mainland has been flooded by Japanese apples while Okanagan Valley producers were in a distressed condition.

Frank Christian, Okanagan-Boundary, questioned current imports of U.S. potatoes.

Harkness said the Japanese apples have met Canadian standards, and there is a tariff of one cent a pound on them. Thus there was no basis for prohibiting their entry. Department officials would look into the situation.

There was no reason for action on imported U.S. potatoes. Imports in recent weeks were less than half they influx a year ago.

After a two-hour discussion of the company's ownership and need for funds to finance capital expansion, the committee approved the bill for third and final Commons reading. Its purpose is to permit the company to boost its authorized capital from $75,000 to $250,000.

Mr. Farrell said 35.85 per cent of the stock of B.C. Telephone is owned by the Anglo-Canadian Telephone Company, which in turn is controlled by the predominantly American-owned Associated Telephone and Telegraph Corporation.

Company President Gordon Farrell gave the information in reply to a question by Colin Cameron, CCF-Nanaimo.

Opening lead — king of diamonds.

The declarer is frequently guided to the best method of play by the line of defense his opponents select.

Declarer must presume that the defenders are doing all they can to defeat him and that they are not acting against their own interests. The declarer can therefore put to service valuable information he obtains as the defenders choose their line of defense.

Observe in this instance how declarer can capitalize on knowledge acquired from the early plays made by the defenders.

West opened the king of diamonds, on which East played the seven. West, anxious to put East on lead to return a heart, now led the jack of diamonds. East won with the ace and returned the ten of hearts.

The fate of the hand now hinges on South's play. If the queen is played, the contract is defeated. If the three is played, the contract is made.

Before making a play, declarer should attempt to determine which defender has the king of hearts. He has no clue except that the defenders had it in their power to arrange the heart lead at trick three to come from either defender. Since the defense elected to have the heart lead, come from East, it must be assumed West has the king.

Playing the queen of hearts on the ten can therefore serve no valid purpose. Retaining the queen does, however, offer a legitimate chance to make the contract. So declarer ducks, and wins the heart with the ace.

Two rounds of trumps are now drawn and a diamond is ruffed dummy. The ace and king of clubs are then cashed. A heart is led, and West is saddled with the lead.

Dummy is out of hearts and diamonds, and so is declarer. West has no club to lead. He must return a heart or a diamond.

Whichever he plays, dummy ruffs and declarer disposes of his club loser.

The elimination play, plus retention of a suitable throw-in card, paves the way to fulfillment of the contract.

Tomorrow: Unnecessary finesse proves fatal.

Your Horoscope

THE STARS SAY —By ESTRELLITA

FOR TOMORROW

Avoid extravagance now, and don't listen to those who would try to inveigle you into questionable schemes or worthless investments of either time or money. Stick to routine matters and be realistic in all things.

FOR THE BIRTHDAY

If tomorrow is your birthday, your horoscope indicates that, during the coming year, you will have many opportunities to prove how ingenious you really are. Some extraordinary responsibilities may be given to you and, where others would fail, your imagination and originality in handling them could bring great prestige. All this, of course, if you work like a true Sagittarian. And all, too, leading to unusual advancement in job and financial goals.

Personal affairs will also be under pleasant aspects and, in this connection, you should hear some heart-warming news late in March—possibility with a romantic angle. Look for some stimulating social experiences between June and September; opportunities to travel in January, May, August and November. A child born on this day will be gentle and sensitive of nature; extremely competent in his life work.

ADVERTISING DOLLAR?

DISCOVER NEWSPAPER AD ALWAYS WILL BE BEST

VANCOUVER — Real estate brokers in Canada and the U.S., according to a recent survey, spent 83 percent of their advertising budgets on newspaper classified and display advertising and only two per cent, for radio and television, delegates to the 14th annual convention of the Canadian Association of Real Estate Boards were told here yesterday.

Leading a round-table discussion on advertising, realtor Jack Rich of Calgary said advertising generally accounts for at least 50 per cent of real estate sales, the other 50 per cent coming from personal contact.

A breakdown of survey figures showed 61 per cent of the real estate advertising dollar went into classified, 22 per cent in display, seven per cent for signs,

1.5 per cent for radio, 5 per cent for television, and 8.5 per cent for miscellaneous advertising such as mailed circulars, billboards and calendars.

"It would appear by these figures that newspaper advertising will always continue to be the best medium through which to advertise real estate . . . and just about every other commodity as it were," said Mr. Rich.

He recalled a recent newspaper strike in New York City which caused all forms of merchandising to drop from 30 to 40 per cent. "The New York publishers proved beyond any doubt that newspaper advertising can not be replaced by the more modern media," said Mr. Rich.

"When newspapers cease publishing, business suffers — particularly real estate."

The best type of advertisement, explained Mr. Rich, is a small one that runs continuously. "To be most effective it must be kept constantly before the public eye," he declared.

Mr. Rich described how a top brand cigarette manufacturer thought its product was so superior it was no longer necessary to continue advertising. "That particular brand has now fallen to ninth or tenth spot in popularity and the manufacturer has little chance of getting back on top of the heap again," said Mr. Rich.

Mr. Rich, whose firm, Rich and Jackson, is one of Calgary's largest, said radio and television are not popular media for advertising real estate because a real estate advertisement must be read to be appreciated.

Those attending the discussion, representing a cross-section of real estate people from coast to coast, were unable to decide which is the best day of the week to advertise real estate. They agreed it depended largely on the individual city and its shopping habits.
